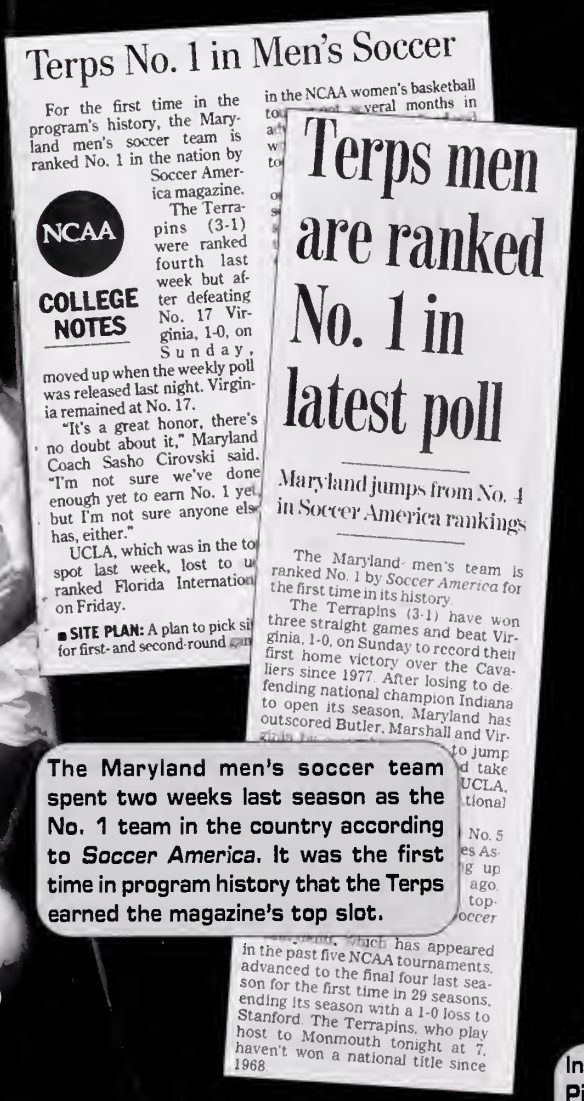
The Terps not only play an extremely demanding fall schedule, but also challenge themselves with high-level opponents in the spring as well. Here, Sumed Ibrahim is marked closely by a DC United defender this past spring. Maryland also faced MLS' Columbus Crew in their tune-up season.



Terps No. 1 in Men's Soccer

For the first time in the program's history, the Maryland men's soccer team is ranked No. 1 in the nation by Soccer America magazine.

NCAA COLLEGE NOTES

The Terrapins (3-1) were ranked fourth last week but after defeating No. 17 Virginia, 1-0, on Sunday, moved up when the weekly poll was released last night. Virginia remained at No. 17.

"It's a great honor, there's no doubt about it," Maryland Coach Sasho Cirovski said. "I'm not sure we've done enough yet to earn No. 1 yet, but I'm not sure anyone else has, either."

UCLA, which was in the top spot last week, lost to unranked Florida International on Friday.

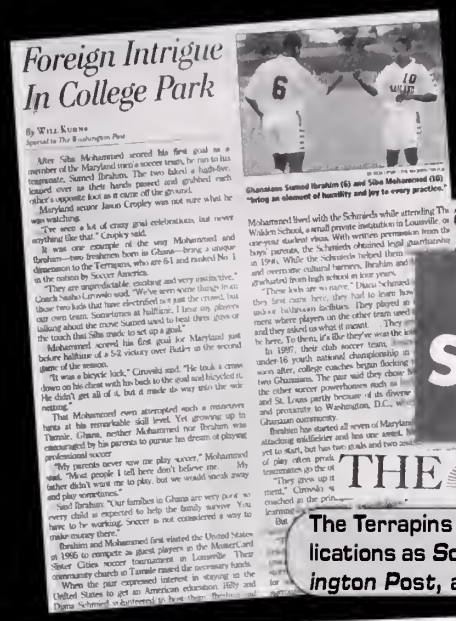
Maryland jumps from No. 4 in Soccer America rankings

The Maryland men's team is ranked No. 1 by Soccer America for the first time in its history.

The Terrapins (3-1) have won three straight games and beat Virginia, 1-0, on Sunday to record their first home victory over the Cavaliers since 1977. After losing to defending national champion Indiana to open its season, Maryland has outscored Butler, Marshall and Virginia by ... to jump ... d take ... UCLA, ... tional ... The Terrapins, who play host to Monmouth tonight at 7, haven't won a national title since 1968.

The Maryland men's soccer team spent two weeks last season as the No. 1 team in the country according to Soccer America. It was the first time in program history that the Terps earned the magazine's top slot.

In 1998, Maryland made their first NCAA semifinal appearance since 1969. Pictured above are Keith Beach and Steve Armas. Both are now playing in MLS, Beach for the Miami Fusion and Armas for the Columbus Crew.



Foreign Intrigue In College Park

By Will Kuhns
Special to The Washington Post

After Siba Mohammed scored his first goal as a member of the Maryland men's soccer team, he ran to his teammate, Samed Ibrahim. The two faked a high-five, leaped over as their hands passed and grabbed each other's opposite foot as it came off the ground.

Maryland senior Jason Cropley was not sure what he was watching.

"I've seen a lot of crazy goal celebrations, but never anything like that," Cropley said.

It was one example of the way Mohammed and Ibrahim—two freshmen born in Ghana—bring a unique dimension to the Terrapins, who are 6-1 and ranked No. 1 in the nation by Soccer America.

"They are unpredictable, exciting and very unselfish," Coach Sasho Cirovski said. "We've seen some things from these two kids that have electrified not just the crowd, but our own team. Sometimes at halftime, I hear my players talking about the move Samed used to beat three guys or the touch that Siba made to set up a goal."

Mohammed scored his first goal for Maryland just before halftime of a 5-2 victory over Butler on the second game of the season.

"It was a bicycle kick," Cirovski said. "He took a cross down on his chest with his back to the goal and bicycled it. He didn't get all of it, but it made its way into the side netting."

That Mohammed even attempted such a maneuver hints at his remarkable skill level. Yet growing up in Tamale, Ghana, neither Mohammed nor Ibrahim was encouraged by his parents to pursue his dream of playing professional soccer.

"My parents never saw me play soccer," Mohammed said. "Most people I tell here don't believe me. My father didn't want me to play, but we would sneak away and play sometimes."

Said Ibrahim: "Our families in Ghana are very poor so every child is expected to help the family survive. You have to be working. Soccer is not considered a way to make money there."

Ibrahim and Mohammed first visited the United States in 1996 to compete as guest players in the Master Card Sister Cities soccer tournament in Louisville. Their community church in Tamale raised the necessary funds.

When the pair expressed interest in staying in the United States to get an American education, Billy and Diana Schmidt volunteered to host them. Ibrahim and Mohammed lived with the Schmidts while attending The Walden School, a small private institution in Louisville, on a one-year student visa. With written permission from the boys' parents, the Schmidts obtained legal guardianship in 1998. While the Schmidts helped them ease the cultural barriers, Ibrahim and Mohammed flourished in high school in four years.

"These kids are so naive," Diana Schmidt said. "They first came here, they had to learn how to use a ballpoint facilities. They played at a tournament where players on the other team used bats and they asked us what it meant. They didn't know he here. To them, it's like they've won the lottery."

THE SUN

The Terrapins regularly appear in such national publications as Soccer America, USA Today, the Washington Post, and the Baltimore Sun.

Terrapin alum Danny Califf, now a defender for MLS' Los Angeles Galaxy, will be part of the 2000 United States' Olympic team, which will compete in August in Sydney, Australia.

Several Terrapins are involved in community activities throughout the year. Here, team co-captain Beckett Hollenbach pitches in at National Student-Athlete Day at Maryland.

Maryland will appear on television during the regular season this fall. Over the past few years Maryland has had several games televised on ESPN and HTS.

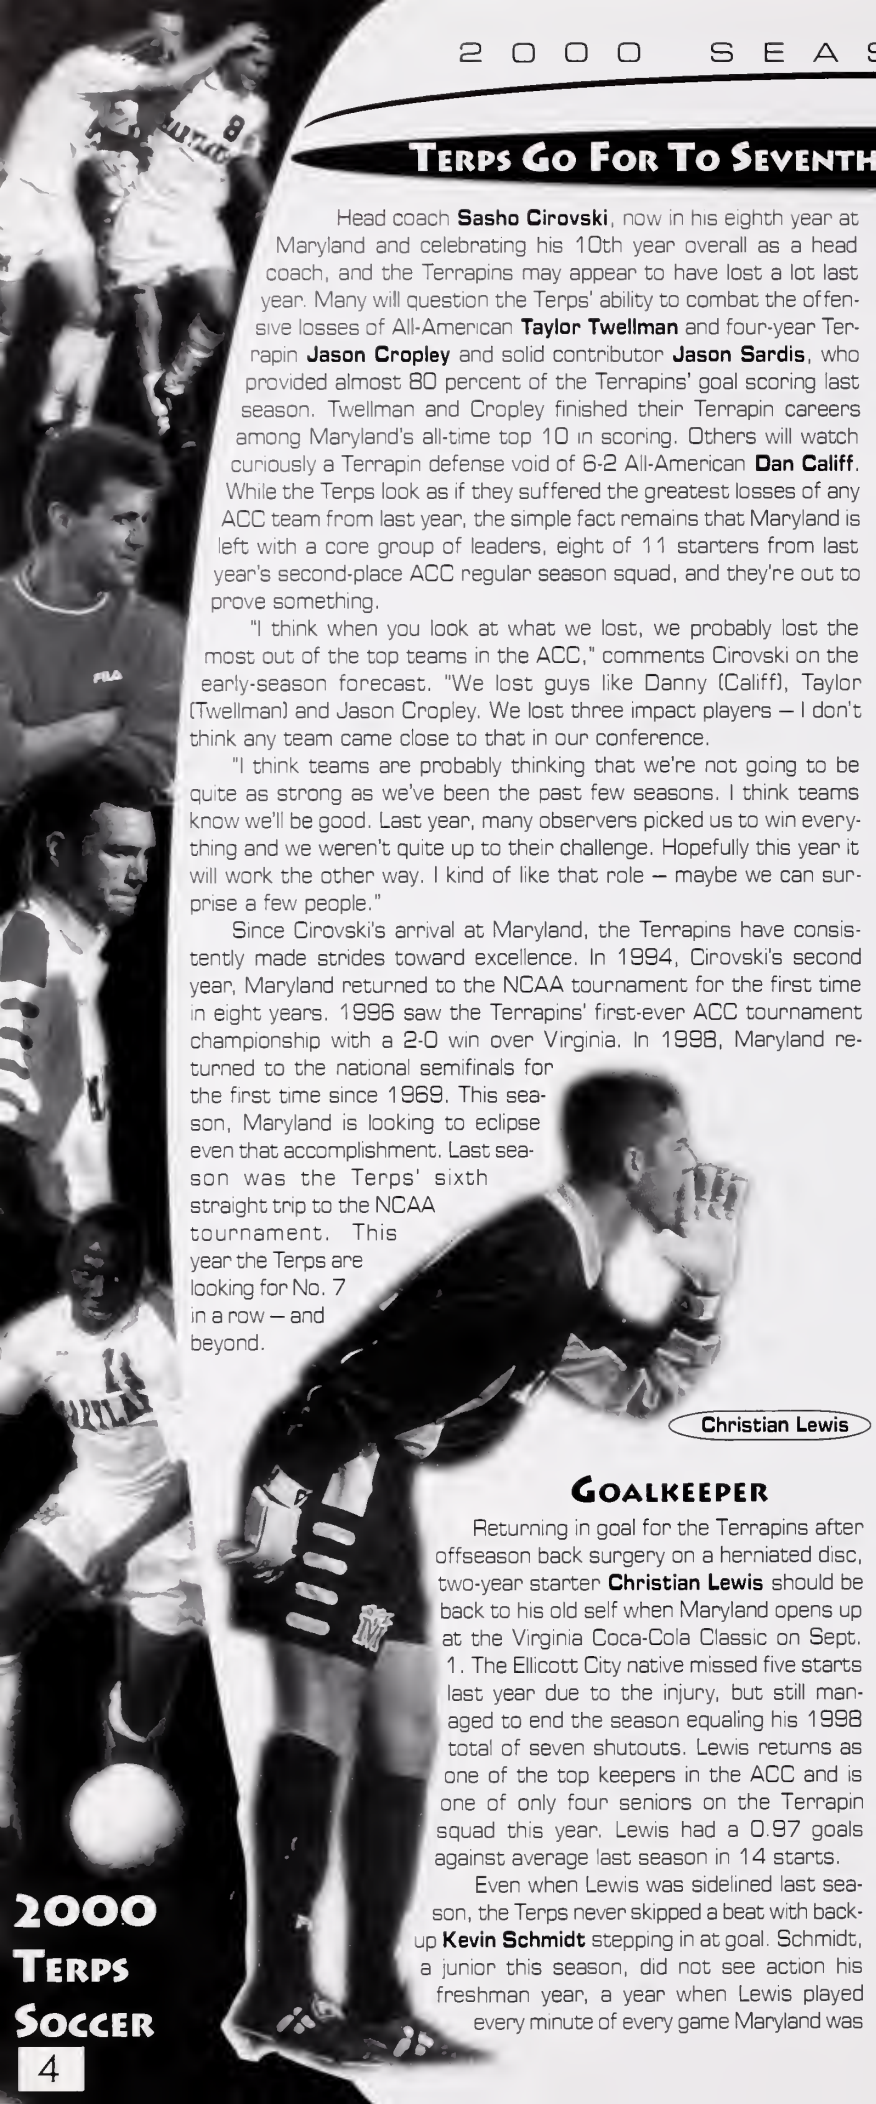
Terps Go For To Seventh Straight NCAA Tournament

Head coach Sasho Cirovski, now in his eighth year at Maryland and celebrating his 10th year overall as a head coach, and the Terrapins may appear to have lost a lot last year. Many will question the Terps' ability to combat the offensive losses of All-American Taylor Twellman and four-year Terrapin Jason Cropley and solid contributor Jason Sardis, who provided almost 80 percent of the Terrapins' goal scoring last season. Twellman and Cropley finished their Terrapin careers among Maryland's all-time top 10 in scoring. Others will watch curiously a Terrapin defense void of 6-2 All-American Dan Califf. While the Terps look as if they suffered the greatest losses of any ACC team from last year, the simple fact remains that Maryland is left with a core group of leaders, eight of 11 starters from last year's second-place ACC regular season squad, and they're out to prove something.

"I think when you look at what we lost, we probably lost the most out of the top teams in the ACC," comments Cirovski on the early-season forecast. "We lost guys like Danny (Califf), Taylor (Twellman) and Jason Cropley. We lost three impact players — I don't think any team came close to that in our conference.

"I think teams are probably thinking that we're not going to be quite as strong as we've been the past few seasons. I think teams know we'll be good. Last year, many observers picked us to win everything and we weren't quite up to their challenge. Hopefully this year it will work the other way. I kind of like that role — maybe we can surprise a few people."

Since Cirovski's arrival at Maryland, the Terrapins have consistently made strides toward excellence. In 1994, Cirovski's second year, Maryland returned to the NCAA tournament for the first time in eight years. 1996 saw the Terrapins' first-ever ACC tournament championship with a 2-0 win over Virginia. In 1998, Maryland returned to the national semifinals for the first time since 1969. This season, Maryland is looking to eclipse even that accomplishment. Last season was the Terps' sixth straight trip to the NCAA tournament. This year the Terps are looking for No. 7 in a row — and beyond.



Christian Lewis

Goalkeeper

Returning in goal for the Terrapins after offseason back surgery on a herniated disc, two-year starter Christian Lewis should be back to his old self when Maryland opens up at the Virginia Coca-Cola Classic on Sept. 1. The Ellicott City native missed five starts last year due to the injury, but still managed to end the season equaling his 1998 total of seven shutouts. Lewis returns as one of the top keepers in the ACC and is one of only four seniors on the Terrapin squad this year. Lewis had a 0.97 goals against average last season in 14 starts.

Even when Lewis was sidelined last season, the Terps never skipped a beat with backup Kevin Schmidt stepping in at goal. Schmidt, a junior this season, did not see action his freshman year, a year when Lewis played every minute of every game Maryland was on the field. His first collegiate appearance was in relief in the Terrapins' third game of the 1999 season, a 4-0 win over Marshall.

It was against George Mason on Oct. 13 that Schmidt would make his first collegiate start. In five games as the Terps' starting keeper while Lewis received back treatments, Schmidt and the Terps had a 4-1 record including a 1-0 overtime decision against William & Mary in which key saves down the stretch helped put the Terps in position to win in the overtime.

According to Cirovski, "Our goalkeeping situation is similar to last year between Christian and Kevin, but I expect both to be better this year. It's going to be an area where we need to display a lot of consistency and leadership."

Defense

Beckett Hollenbach

The Maryland defense, one of the strongest links for the Terrapins for the past few years, should come back as good as ever this season. Team co-captains Beckett Hollenbach and Nick Downing join senior starter Mike Shebuski to provide a veteran presence for Maryland in the back. The trio will look to spell the loss of Dan Califf, who opted to forgo his final two years of eligibility and was drafted by the Los Angeles Galaxy as the sixth overall pick in the 2000 MLS Superdraft.

"If you look at the key areas, in goal we should have a senior or a junior. In the central defense, we'll have two high-level juniors who are two of our co-captains. Two of our three or four backs will be either juniors, seniors, or co-captains," Cirovski points out of his potential on-field make-up. "Defensive midfield, which is also a key leadership position, should be Rob Birch's position, and he is also a senior. So, in the key areas of our team, the most influential positions in terms of organizing and leadership, we should have people who've been around a little bit who are hungry."

Hollenbach, though plagued with injuries last season, had a healthy spring displaying the consistency and leadership that mark his game. A two-year starter, the Pennsylvania native is serving his second year as team captain. He is a returning second-team All-ACC pick for the Terps, and is relied upon to spark Maryland's build from the back.

An All South Atlantic Region selection in 1999, Downing will likely play centrally in the back, whether the Terps go with a three- or four-back system this fall. A two-year starter, Downing will be an impact defender both in ACC play and on a national level with the Terps this season. Downing's quickness and agility should pace the Terps' defensive efforts early on.

Shebuski enters his final year as one of the ACC's most underrated defenders. A gritty, tenacious defender, Shebuski will remain on the right side of the Terps' back line this season and is the only returning Terrapin who started all 20 games last season.

After an exceptional spring, junior Tyler Pharr will fight for a starting position in the Terps' defensive mix this season. Fellow Texan Philip Salyer, who has burst onto the U.S. Under-20 scene, will also vie for time in his inaugural campaign at Maryland.

Midfield

Senior starter Rob Birch will anchor a midfield unit, which will also contain some familiar faces. Returning with the two-year starter will be sophomores Scott Buete, Sumed Ibrahim, and Siba Mohammed. Buete started 19 games last year for the Terps, and was second on the team in assists with eight. Using his quickness to the goal, Buete also scored twice for the Terps, including the game-winner over ACC-rival Virginia.

Sumed Ibrahim was another Terrapin who was plagued by injury last season, fighting a groin pull most of the fall. The Ghana native still managed a goal and two assists in 14 starts during the 1999 season. A sophomore, Sumed Ibrahim will be joined by fellow countryman Siba Mohammed, who started five games and saw critical reserve minutes in 13 other games. He ended the season with four goals and six assists, and underwent two knee surgeries during the offseason. A lot of Siba Mohammed's performance will depend on the rehabilitation from those surgeries, but the attacking midfielder had a solid fall last season for the Terps and should be able to build on that.

"I think last year, we were very young in the midfield," says Cirovski. "This year our midfield will be stronger, more mature and should be a strength of ours, and as a result create better quality chances for the forwards."

In addition to the four returners at midfield for the Terrapins, Maryland has three new faces in the mix there as well. New Jersey native Matt Roberts, an Under-17 National team pool member, will be more of a defensive midfielder for the Terrapins who possesses a tremendous work ethic and excellent passing skills.

A two-time All-Arizona player and Region IV standout, Bryan Vitagliano also has the potential to impact the Terrapins immediately in the midfield. Horizon High School's career leading scorer, he is a dynamic presence when going to the goal from either the attacking midfield, or striker positions.

The final newcomer in the midfield mix is Virginia native Jason Arnold, who played for the 1999 U-17 national champion Braddock Road Warhawks club team, and has the ability to immediately impact things in the midfield.

Scott Buete

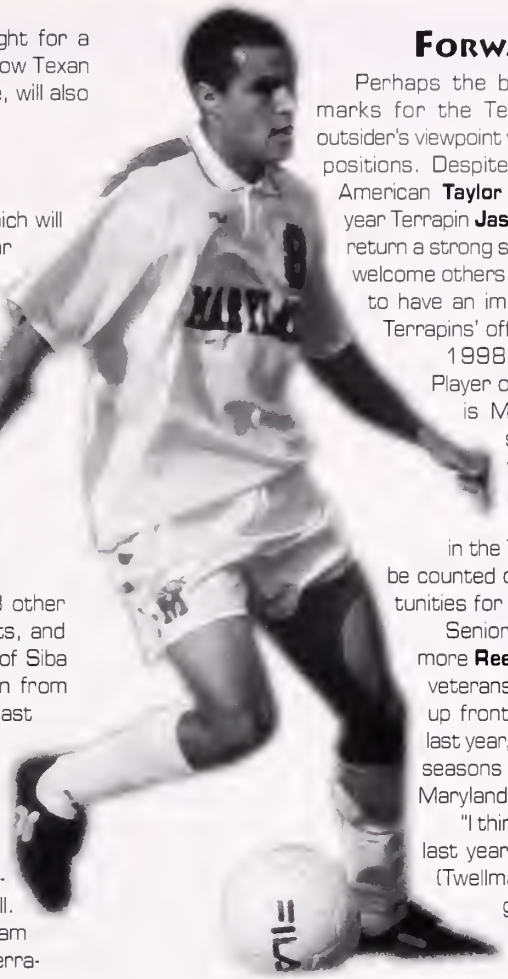
Forward

Perhaps the biggest question marks for the Terrapins from an outsider's viewpoint would be the striker positions. Despite the losses of All-American Taylor Twellman and four-year Terrapin Jason Cropley, the Terps return a strong stable of attackers, and welcome others who have the potential to have an immediate impact on the Terrapins' offense.

1998 Parade and NSCAA Player of the Year A.J. Herrera is Maryland's top returning scorer this season. This year, Herrera will be moving from the midfield to more of a striker position in the Terps' attack. His speed will be counted on to create scoring opportunities for a young Terrapin frontline.

Senior Nick Purdom and sophomore Reed Rickert are the only other veterans who return for the Terrapins up front. Both played a reserve role last year, but after having quality spring seasons should play more of a role in Maryland's attack this season.

"I think at times we relied too much last year on people waiting for Taylor (Twellman) to find a way to score a goal or to use (Jason) Cropley's speed to enable us to get something," commented Cirovski. "A.J.'s proved he can play at that level up front, so has newcomer Abe Thompson, so its going to be our job to make sure that we're better connected and to spread the load. That doesn't mean that we won't have one guy score a lot of goals, but I just think that we'll be less reliant on one person."



A.J. Herrera

Thompson hails from nearby Fairfax, Va. and attended W.T. Woodson High School with fellow classmate Clarence Goodson. Both were teammates of incoming midfielder Jason Arnold for the 1999 national champion Braddock Road Warhawks club team. Thompson, an Under-17 national team striker, was an NSCAA and Parade All-American choice who has an excellent feel around the goal. Goodson is also a true forward who will figure in the young mix up front.

Ohio-native Seth Stammler also joins the front line attack for the Terrapins. Stammler has been training with the Columbus Crew of MLS during the summer, and will bring another technically good striker into the mix.

Overall, the Terps field a team with chemistry and a midfield vastly experienced from last year's. With veterans a staple in the Maryland back, and a host of bright stars up front, the Terps look to remain a nationally prominent team — no matter what others may believe.

Head Coach Sasho Cirovski

8th season at Maryland • 10th season Overall • Wisc.-Milwaukee '85

University of Maryland men's soccer coach Sasho Cirovski will wave you into his office with a smile and a hearty hello. Upon entering, you can see that two things permeate Cirovski's life: family and soccer. His upbeat attitude and infectious affinity for both are evident all over his office. Pictures of his wife and children litter his desk and bookcases and compete for your eye's attention with the countless pieces of soccer memorabilia scattered about the room.

This past fall was his wife, Shannon Higgins-Cirovski's, was named the ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as head women's soccer coach at the University of Maryland. Higgins-Cirovski's presence just down the hallway from Cirovski's gives the Maryland programs a unique feel, making them truly an extension of one another - a special Maryland soccer family of sorts.

Even if Cirovski family's story ended there, it would be an interesting one. It doesn't. The Terrapin tale starts in 1993 when he was hired to take over a program that had finished below-.500 a year earlier. Few could have predicted that in seven seasons at the helm, Cirovski would have not only taken the Terrapins to the Final Four in 1998, but also guided the team to its sixth straight NCAA tournament trip in 1999. Despite the program's storied history, including a co-championship in 1968, which it shared with Michigan State, and ACC championships each year from 1953-68, Maryland soccer no longer struck fear in the hearts of opponents when Cirovski arrived in College Park.

It was time to put the program on the map again. Enter Cirovski. Coming from Hartford, Cirovski had already taken one struggling program that had not appeared in the New England Region rankings its first few years at the Division I level, to its first-ever NCAA appearance his first season on board. Coming to Maryland, Cirovski met an equally daunting challenge.

The Terrapins were a combined 20-29-5 the three years previous to Cirovski's arrival, including a 5-12 record the year before his hiring. His first year was one of growth, and yielded a 3-14-1 record. Every year after that would be a different story. The preparation that made such improvements possible started at the beginning of his coaching career.

Cirovski developed an excellent coaching reputation over a three-year period as a Division I assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Milwaukee, from 1988-90. Cirovski learned under the watchful eye of Bob Gansler, current coach of the Kansas City Wizards in MLS and the former United States World Cup head coach. During the spring of 1989, Cirovski served as an interim head coach while Gansler attended to his duties at the 1990 World Cup Championships in Italy. In his final season at Wisconsin-Milwaukee, the team made it to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than a decade.

His trail of success continued at Hartford, where, in only his first year, he guided the Hawks to their first-ever NCAA appearance and first-ever North Atlantic Conference championship. Hartford defeated Columbia in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and took Virginia, the eventual NCAA champion, to four overtimes before losing. Cirovski duplicated several of those feats the next season as Hartford won its second consecutive NAC championship and played in the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Cirovski's first two seasons were as successful as any in the collegiate ranks. He guided the Hawks to back-to-back 13-6-3 records and became one of only a handful of coaches to take a team to the NCAA Tournament in his first two years as a head coach.

The success turned heads at Maryland, and in 1993, Cirovski became the Terrapins' head coach. As the inaugural year's 3-14-1 record would show, turning the program around would be no easy task. Never one to back down from a challenge, Cirovski rose to the occasion and has elevated the Maryland program to new heights of national prominence again. The turnaround has been remarkable. In just seven years, Cirovski has led the Terrapins to six consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, including 1998's trip to the national semifinal. The 1996 Atlantic Coast Conference champions, Maryland soccer is back on the map again.

His second season at Maryland, Cirovski's Terp squad went to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, and finished with a 14-6-1 record. A 4-3 first-round NCAA win over Georgetown was the program's first since 1969, and marked the first time since 1986 that Maryland received an invitation to the Big Dance.

The Terps' improvement from a 3-14-1 record during Cirovski's first year to a 14-6-1 record in 1994 marks the greatest single-season turnaround in the 44-year history of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The excitement was building. In 1995, the Terps proved that the previous season was no fluke, finishing with a 13-6-2 record. Maryland again advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. They finished second in the ACC with a 4-1-1 mark, and ended the year ranked as high as No. 15 by Soccer America.

A No. 4 preseason ranking in 1996 had the campus buzzing from the beginning. Then, Maryland made history when they won the 1996 ACC championship, the first ever tournament championship in the program's history. After leaving Charlottesville, Va., with the championship trophy in hand, the Terps refocused their sights on the NCAA Tournament.

Avenging an earlier loss to James Madison, they defeated the Dukes 2-1 in the first round. Maryland was awarded home-field advantage in the second round and hosted then third-ranked William & Mary. The Terps' season came to an end on Dec. 1 with a 3-0 loss.

After a fourth-place regular season finish, the Terps found themselves again playing for the ACC championship in 1997. After opening the season with a school record-setting five consecutive wins, the Terps would be derailed by NC State, a team which the Terps had defeated 7-0 in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament one year ago. The Terps would win their next four before falling to Richmond. The Terps entered the ACC Tournament as a No. 4 seed and had a date with Clemson in the quarterfinals, a team the Terps hadn't defeated since 1989. The losing streak finally ended as the Terps prevailed, 4-2. Sitting in the wings was Duke, the top seed in the tournament. Maryland had little difficulty with the Blue Devils, also handing them a 4-2 loss. In the other semifinal, Virginia defeated Wake Forest for a championship date with the Terrapins. Virginia would escape with a 2-0 win and the ACC championship.

Maryland advanced to the NCAA second round for the fourth consecutive season, defeating Rutgers (1-0) in the first round before losing to American, 1-0. The Terps finished 1997 with a record of 16-6-1, a school record for wins in a season. Maryland's record earned it a No. 10 finish for the season.

Another milestone would be reached on Jan. 31, 1998, when Leo Cullen was selected as the No. 1 draft pick by the Miami Fusion in the Major League Soccer collegiate draft. A Hermann and Missouri Athletic Club award finalist in 1996 and 1997, Cullen was also selected as the 1997 ACC Player of the Year, an NSCAA first-team All-American and Collegiate MVP by Soccer America.

The respect Cirovski has earned throughout the ranks of the game, and his enthusiasm for the sport of soccer, attracted the nation's top recruiting class to College Park before the 1998 season. They did not disappoint anyone. Led by National Freshman of the Year Taylor Twellman, and Maryland's all-time career assist leader, Keith Beach, the Terrapins withstood the growing pains that come with being young and finished the regular season 12-6, 3-3 in the ACC.

Maryland headed into the ACC Tournament a No. 5 seed and handled North Carolina 2-0 before falling to eventual ACC champion, Clemson. The Terps then regrouped for their fifth straight NCAA Tournament run, and what a run it was. The first round started with a 2-1 defeat of Richmond. With Jacksonville's upset win over Duke, the Dolphins came to Ludwig Field to take on the Terrapins in the second round. A 3-0 decision would propel Maryland into the next round to face Creighton in the quarterfinals. Maryland came out on top of a 3-2 finish and pack their bags for Richmond for the Final Four.

The Terrapins' appearance in the national semifinals was school's first since 1969. When the clock ticked down, however, it was Stanford which came out on top with a 1-0 victory. The 16-8 record would tie for most wins in a season in school history, but the semifinal loss would leave a bitter taste.

The 1999 season saw Cirovski's team spend two weeks in the No. 1 slot in the Soccer America poll for the first time ever in school history. The Terps also ended the regular season with 14 wins, tying a program record for most wins in a regular season. Maryland entered the ACC Tournament as the No. 2 seed, but lost a 2-0 decision to a streaking Virginia team. Receiving its sixth straight NCAA bid, No. 6 seed Maryland was then stunned by St. John's on its home field with a 1-0 in the 89th minute to bring its season to an end. In the offseason, Terrapin sophomores Dan Califf and Taylor Twellman both opted to explore their options in the professional ranks with Califf being selected in the first round by the Los Angeles Galaxy of MLS and Twellman signing with the 1860 Munich of the German Bundesliga, adding to Cirovski's list of Terrapin alumns who are currently enjoying successful professional careers..

After stringing together seven outstanding seasons at Maryland, Cirovski has added the respect of more people than ever for the Terrapins. He has combined an unparalleled ability to motivate and teach with exceptional mastery of technique to become one of the most talented and versatile soccer coaches in the nation. And whether it's on the field or in the classroom, Cirovski's student-athletes give it all they've got, and it shows.

In addition to the coaching accomplishments of his eight-year career, Cirovski was also a standout student-athlete himself. He began his career at Wisconsin-Milwaukee where he was a four-year letterwinner. As a senior, he won the Herman Kluge Award for Male Athlete of the Year and in 1998 he was inducted into the UWM Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1985 and his master's in 1989. He then spent parts of three seasons as a professional player and coach with the teams in the Canadian Soccer League, and the National Professional Soccer League. His first taste of coaching came in 1987 in the Canadian Soccer League.

Cirovski is entering his 10th year of coaching overall, and holds an "A" coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation, as well as an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. During the summer of 1997, he served as the assistant coach of the JVC U-17 World Youth Championship team, which played against Argentina, Uraguay, Egypt and two domestic camps. The team competed at the U-17 World Cup Championship in Egypt held in September of 1997. Cirovski also worked as an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 National Team.

Cirovski's wife, the former Shannon Higgins, played collegiate soccer at North Carolina and is entering her second year as head coach of the Maryland's women's soccer team. The couple has two daughters, six-year-old Hailey, and Karli, who turned four in August.

Assistant Coach Jeff Rohrman

6th season at Maryland • Wisc.-Milwaukee '86

Exceptional assistants should be able to complement their head coaches in every way, and Jeff Rohrman does just that for at the University of Maryland. Not only is he the perfect complement for head coach Sasho Cirovski, but they share each other's excitement for the game as well as the energy and drive to make Terrapin soccer the best program in the country.

In his sixth season with the Terrapins, Rohrman's duties include everything from coordinating Maryland's travel schedule, to recruiting, practice, administration, working with student-athletes, and assisting Cirovski in countless behind-the-scenes tasks that make the university's soccer program one of the best.

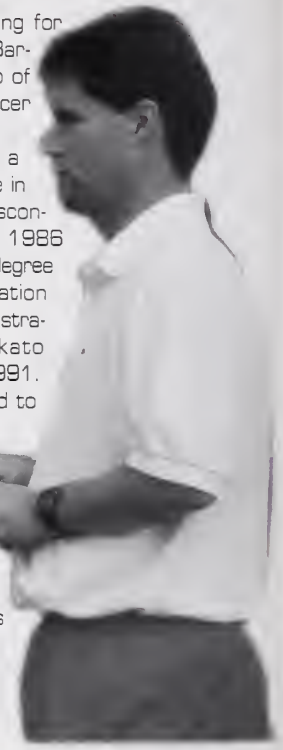
Rohrman's first coaching experience came when he was appointed head men's soccer coach at Bethany Lutheran College, where he had played for two years. Prior to coming to Maryland, he served as the assistant women's soccer coach at the U.S. Naval Academy. While there, he gathered experience in eligibility tracking, community relations, scheduling, advising and budget management, as well as his on-field coaching duties. Rohrman also worked as an intern for the U.S. Olympic Committee where he coordinated the competition for the U-20 National Team.

As a player, Rohrman spent two seasons at Wisconsin-Milwaukee and two years at Bethany Lutheran College. He played alongside Cirovski in 1984 while at Wisconsin-Milwaukee. During his time there, he earned all-state honors, was named team captain, and was voted team MVP following his senior season. He earned All-American status following his sophomore season at Bethany Lutheran.

Aside from collegiate experience, Rohrman has played professionally and in the Olympic ranks. A participant in the 1986 Olympic Soccer Festival in Houston, he then went on to play professionally with the Milwaukee Wave of the American Indoor Soccer League in 1986 and 1987. Rohrman also has experience with club soccer, playing for the Real Santa Barbara Soccer Club of the Western Soccer League.

He earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1986 and his master's degree in physical education and sports administration from Mankato (Minn.) State in 1991.

He is married to the former Nancy Kramarz. Their first child, Danielle Marie, celebrated her second birthday this past April.



Goalkeeping Coach John Pascarella

3rd season at Maryland • Penn State '89

John Pascarella begins his third season with the Maryland coaching staff, serving as the Terps' goalkeeping coach. Pascarella joined the Terps after having most recently served as the goalkeeping coach for the Los Angeles Galaxy of Major League Soccer in 1998.

Pascarella was a four-year letterwinner at Penn State University from 1984-88. After graduation, he played one year professionally in Lima, Peru, becoming the first American player to play in Peru. In 1991, Pascarella spent a year playing for the Washington Stars and Fairfax Spartans. He then traveled back to Peru in 1992, playing for Aliaza Atletico for a year.

In 1994, Pascarella returned to the States to play for the Richmond Kickers, and then turned his talents to the indoor league, playing for the Standard Falcons in Montclaire, Calif. It was from there he moved to Los Angeles to accept a coaching position with the Galaxy.

Pascarella received his bachelor's of science degree in exercise science from Penn State in 1989. He is the director of Soccer Plus goalkeeper school located in Weathersfield, Conn., and also began a goalkeeping school in South America in 1989. The nine-year professional player has also served as a guest clinician at the Swedish National Goalkeeping School. He and his wife Lisa reside in Bristow, Va. The couple has a one-year daughter Kara and another child on the way.

Scott Buete

Sophomore · Midfielder · 5-7 · 145
Bowie, Md. · Bowie

On Buete: Undoubtedly one of the brightest stars in the ACC his rookie season, Buete stepped into the starting lineup on the frontlines for Maryland in 1999 ... possesses lightning speed, and can thread the ball through the defense for the assist, reflected in his eight-assist total last season, which was second on the team ... underwent off-season groin surgery, but still had a good spring ... should have a full recovery for the fall and will play either on the left side of the midfield, in the attacking midfield, or in the central midfield.

As a Freshman in 1999: Started 19 out of 20 games ... his game-winning goal came in Maryland's 1-0 defeat of Virginia at Ludwig Field on Sept. 12 ... also scored against Marshall on Sept. 8 ... a midfielder, he averaged 0.33 assists per game ... his career-high three points came in Maryland's 4-0 win over Marshall on Sept. 8 ... was second only to Taylor Twellman in assists in 1999 for Maryland with eight ... the ACC Player of the Week for Sept. 13, Buete also received Soccer America Team of the Week recognition for his performances against Marshall and Virginia ... named to the ACC honor roll.

Before Maryland: A 1999 graduate of Bowie High School, Buete was a four-year letterman in soccer ... helped his team to the Prince George's County Championship in 1995, '96 and '97, and as far as the Maryland state finals in 1997 ... scored 31 goals and tallied 16 assists while at Bowie ...named the MVP in the midfield in 1997 and offensive MVP in 1998 ... a 1998 finalist on the U.S. Under-18 National Team, Buete also played for the Baltimore Stars club team and was part of the Maryland Olympic Developmental Program's U.S. Regional Team for seven years ... entered his high school's hall of fame in 1997-98 and was a High School Academic Athlete from 1995-98 ... a 1997-98 first-team all-state pick, he was also selected to the National Soccer Coaches' Association of America's all-South team in 1998 ... the Washington Post named Buete to its All-Met first team, while the Prince George's County Journal chose him for Player of the Year honors in 1997 and 1998 ... was a member of the National Honor Society and Spanish Honor Society in high school ... in 1998 earned honorable mention status as a Maryland Distinguished Scholar

Personal: The son of Gary and Anne Buete, Scott is the youngest of four boys: Tony (36), Gary (30), and Robby (28) ... Buete was born on July 23, 1980 in Phoenix, Ariz. ... he admires his parents for their guidance and points to Ben Olsen as his favorite athlete for the speed of his game and his intensity and effort ... Buete is majoring in letters and sciences ... his full name is George Scott Buete.

Nick Downing — Co-Captain

Junior · Defender · 5-9 · 145
Redmond, Wash. · Eastlake

On Downing: A three-year veteran on the back lines for Maryland, Downing will serve his first year as a team captain this fall with fellow junior Beckett Hollenbach ... a quick and agile defender, Downing will be counted on with Hollenbach to organize the defense into a cohesive unit as effective as last year's, which included All-American Dan Califf ... possesses quick feet and is undoubtedly one of the Terrapins' strongest links this season ... will move from defensive midfield to the back, and will play centrally in the back whether the Terps run a three or a four-man back system.

As a Sophomore 1999: A key component of a Maryland defense that was consistently one of the best in the country ... had six assists, including a three-assist performance against American on Oct. 20 ... missed three games with a strained MCL, but started the other 17 games on the Terps' schedule ... assisted Jason Cropley's game-winner against Lafayette on Sept. 22 ... Downing was also named to the Maryland/Fila Preseason College Kick-off all-tournament team ... a second-team All South Atlantic Region selection.

As a Freshman 1998: Started in 23 games, missing one game because of an injury ... was part of a young Maryland back line that allowed its opponents 26 goals ... named to Soccer America's All-Freshman team ... played on the U.S. U-20 National team in the spring.

Before Maryland: Attended Eastlake High School in Redmond, Wash. ... the 1997 Gatorade National Player of the Year ... 1997 Parade National Player of the Year ... a Soccer America top 25 collegiate recruit ... captained the U.S. Under-17 National Team which participated in the World Cup in Egypt in 1997 ... a starter on the U.S. Under-20 National Team ... a three-time NSCAA All-American (1996-98) ... earned Parade All-America honors in 1997 ... the 1996 Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Washington ... a four-year varsity letterwinner in soccer ... helped guide Eastlake to an 82-6-1 record during his four years, including back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1996 and 1997 ... scored 40 goals and 35 assists while wearing the Eastlake uniform.

Personal: Majoring in letters and sciences ... chose the University of Maryland because of its professional atmosphere ... parents are Jim and Linda Downing ... born Jan. 25, 1980 ... his full name is Nick Scott Downing.

Personal: The son of Brad and Loretta Stammler, Seth was born on September 29, 1981 in Columbus, Ohio ... one of two children, he has an older brother, Eric (20) ... plans to major in business.

Abe Thompson

Freshman · Forward · 6-1 · 170
Fairfax Station, Va. · W.T. Woodson

On Thompson: Should be one of Maryland's most potent strikers this season ... a big, strong and agile athlete, he can hold the ball well and is deceptively fast ... has the ability to lull defenders to sleep and is a good poacher around the goal.

Before Maryland: A NSCAA and Parade All-American, Thompson's W.T. Woodson team went an outstanding 19-2-1, winning the AAA Virginia state championship in 2000 ... the Gatorade Virginia High School Player of the Year, he was also named the Washington Area Soccer Association striker of the year ... a four-time first team all-district selection, Thompson was also picked for first team all-region and All-Met honors three times each ... a first-team all-state selection in 2000, he tallied 84 goals and 18 assists as a four-year starter ... spent the summer of 2000 with the U-20 national team ... was also recruited by Indiana, Duke, Clemson, South Carolina and Wake Forest.

Personal: Born on Jan 12, 1982 in Tuscon, Ariz., Thompson is the son of Allen and Holly Thompson ... Thompson has two younger sisters, Rachel (14) and Emily (12) ...a letters and sciences major.

Bryan Vitagliano

Freshman · Midfielder/Forward · 5-7 · 145
Scottsdale, Ariz. · Horizon

On Vitagliano: Vitagliano can play a role as either a right-sided midfielder, attacking midfield, or striker in Maryland's lineup ... a very good attacking player, he is dynamic, quick and agile and enters his freshman campaign as one of the more skillful freshman for the Terps.

Before Maryland: A two year All-Arizona selection, Vitagliano played for the Sereno 82 Golden Eagles club team in Phoenix ... his club team was the 1997-98 Arizona state champions ... the all-time leading scorer at Horizon, Vitagliano was a scholar-athlete in 2000 as well as a two-year Scottsdale all-city player ... a four-time Desert Valley all-region selection, he was selected as the Desert Valley Region Player of the Year in 1998 .. Vitagliano is Horizon's all-time leading goal-scorer, and was named the team's best forward in 1997 and '98, and the team's best midfielder in 1999 and 2000 ... a three-time all-state selection, he was Horizon's MVP for his last three years there.

Personal: Born April 24, 1982, he is the son of Anthony and Peggy Vitagliano ... one of four boys, Vitagliano has two younger brothers, Joey (15) and Kit (16) as well as one older brother, Tony (20), who plays soccer at USC ... majoring in letters and sciences ... full name is Bryan C. Vitagliano.

Recruiting The Best

Maryland head coach Sasho Cirovski has recuited some of the nation's top classes over the past five years. Current Terps Nick Downing and A.J. Herrera were both named Parade Player of the Year, with Herrera earning NSCAA honors as well. Other national players of the year which have worn a Maryland uniform under Cirovski are Taylor Twellman (NSCAA), Andy Kirk (NSCAA), Pierre Venditti (NSCAA) and Leo Cullen (Parade).

Review Notebook

The Terps' Sixth Straight

When Maryland received its No. 7 seed in 1999, it marked the sixth straight year that the Terps received a bid to the NCAA men's soccer tournament. The Terrapins had not made the NCAA field for eight years previous to receiving their bid in 1994 when current head coach Sasho Cirovski brought the Terps back to the tournament. Maryland has been invited to the NCAA Tournament 18 times in program history. The Terrapins are 18-19-2 overall in the NCAA Tournament including their 1-0 first-round loss to St. John's in 1999. Maryland has gone to the Final Four six times, and was the co-national champion with Michigan State in 1968. In the last five years, Maryland is 6-6-1 in the tournament, including a Final Four run in 1998.

Maryland Ties Mark for Most Regular-Season Wins

Maryland's 14 regular season wins tied the record for the most regular season wins ever in Terrapin soccer history. Last time the Terps won 14 games in a regular season was 1986 when Maryland went 14-4-1 under Alden Shattuck.

Califf and Twellman Say Goodbye

Sophomores Dan Califf and Taylor Twellman bid an early adieu to the University of Maryland and the Terrapin soccer program to pursue their dreams of playing soccer at the next level after the 1999 season. Both were third-team NSCAA All-Americans with the Terps in 1999. Califf became a first round selection in the MLS Superdraft when the Los Angeles Galaxy chose him sixth overall, while Twellman stamped his passport and headed for the prestigious German Bundesliga to join the 1860 Munich club. In addition to his budding MLS career, Califf is also a top candidate to represent the United States at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

Four Terps Named All-ACC

Maryland men's soccer players Dan Califf, Jason Cropley, Beckett Hollenbach and Taylor Twellman received All-ACC honors in 1999. Califf and Twellman received first team recognition, while Cropley and Hollenbach were placed on the second team. Twellman's selection marked the second time the St. Louis native earned All-ACC first team recognition in his two-year career at Maryland. Califf, Cropley and Hollenbach all received All-ACC honors for the first time. Duke and Wake Forest led the list of honorees with five players, while Maryland was next in line with four.

Maryland Individual Honors

In addition to team recognition, several Terps received numerous individual honors in 1999. Most notably, sophomores Taylor Twellman and Nick Downing were both finalists for the Hermann Trophy, which honors the most outstanding male and female collegiate soccer player in the United States. The pair, along with classmate Dan Califf, were also included on the list of Missouri Athletic Club finalists for Collegiate Soccer Players of the Year.

Cropley, Twellman, Sardis Make Their Mark on the Career Lists

Second-team All-ACC selection Jason Cropley finished his four-year Terp career with 29 goals, 18 assists, and 76 points. Those numbers placed Cropley on all three individual top 10 career lists at Maryland. The California native finished his career ninth on the all-time goals list with 29, fifth on the career assists list with 18, and sixth on the career points list with 76 for his career.

In only two years, Taylor Twellman finished his career as the Terps' leading scorer for the second straight year, and also added his name to all three career charts at Maryland. Twellman finished 10th in career goals (28), tied for sixth with Steve Armas (1995-98) with 17 at No. 7 for career assists, and part of a three-way tie for career points at No. 7 with 73. He shares that spot for career points with Dom Feltham (1986-89) and Carlos Martin (1959-61).

Jason Sardis rounds out the list of Terps making their mark on the career charts in 1999. Sardis' 16 career assists tie him with Gino Ferrin (1985-86), and Rocco Morelli (1968-69) for seventh on that list.

Terps in the Polls in '99

A top 10 team through most of the 1999 season, Maryland reached as high as No. 1 in the Soccer America poll on Sept. 13. The top ranking was the first-ever for the Terps by Soccer America. Maryland kept the top spot for two weeks before its 3-0 loss to Duke when it fell to ninth. Maryland has spent an total of 10 weeks in the National Coaches Association of America's top 10 in 1999.

Maryland Against the Best

Maryland's 1999 schedule pitted them against some of the nation's top teams in 1999. The season started out with a No. 1 vs. No. 3 matchup when the Terps traveled to Indiana, and the excitement rolled on from there.

Maryland played nine teams when it was either ranked or receiving votes in the NSCAA poll, and saw action against two others in the Maryland/Fila Preseason College Kick-off Tournament. Maryland made it through the tough schedule with a 14-6 record and came in just behind undefeated Duke in the ACC regular season race with a 4-2 conference record.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Senior forward Aleksey Korol scored the game-winning goal at 20:52 to lift No.1 Indiana over No. 3 Maryland in the first round of the adidas/IU Credit Union Classic at Indiana.

While Maryland came out firing in the first half, outshooting the Hoosiers 7-4, it was Indiana that went into the half up 1-0. The Hoosiers' lone goal of the day came at 20:52 when Korol took the pass from freshman Pat Noonan and booted it into the bottom left corner of the net past Lewis. Maryland battled through with a strong second half, getting six shots off and having numerous other opportunities in the zone. One of the best scoring opportunities of the second half came at 83:16 when Downing rifled a free kick off Indiana's wall that rebounded to classmate Taylor Twellman. Twellman charged the ball for the shot, but was stopped short by Indiana goalie T.J. Hanning.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - The No. 3 Maryland Terrapins rallied from a 2-1 deficit to defeat No. 16 Butler 5-2 in the second round of the adidas/IU Classic at Indiana. Ghana native Siba Mohammed's first collegiate goal proved to be the game-winner for the Terps. Siba Mohammed ended the day with an assist as well.

Maryland struck first when Jason Cropley converted at 25:37. Cropley received the pass from Siba Mohammed, who was charging down the far sideline when he found Cropley in front of the right side of the net. It took Butler only 22 seconds to answer as sophomore Stephan Armstrong broke toward the goal off the center and found classmate David Beck who evened the score, 1-1.

The Bulldogs struck again at 35:42 when a corner kick sequence resulted in a Dan Greist goal. The score resulted off a rebound on which Tony Beer found Greist to put Butler ahead for the only time in the afternoon. Five minutes elapsed before Terp freshman Reed Rickert scored his first collegiate goal from the left side off a Taylor Twellman pass at 40:58 to even the score again. Defender Mike Shebuski found Siba Mohammed for the last goal of the half when he converted a tough kick from the ground at the center of the net, 15 yds. out. The Terps would take the 3-2 lead into the locker room at the half and never relinquished it.

Both teams had several good chances to score in a second half that was littered with cards and injuries. Once the Terrapins were up two men on Butler after two red cards were assessed to the Bulldogs, the floodgates opened for the Maryland offense as it rattled off two more goals before time expired.

The first came off the foot of Twellman, a preseason All-American pick, with the assist from Maryland's other Ghana native, Sumed Ibrahim, at 82:22. A breakaway goal from Herrera four minutes later made the final tally 5-2 Maryland.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Scott Buete scored his first collegiate goal and added an assist to lead No. 8 Maryland past Marshall by the score of 4-0.

Taylor Twellman opened up the scoring for Maryland just over one minute into the game when he bounced one in off the crossbar from seven yards out off assists from Buete and Erik Dzimek. Those assists marked the first collegiate points for both Terps.

Buete then widened the gap with a goal at 40:47 when a loose ball situation arose in front of the goal. Maryland would take that 2-0 lead into the half after dominating the Thundering Herd from the beginning. A.J. Herrera connected shortly after the break with a 12-yard shot with assists from Jason Sardis and Mike Shebuski. That assist was the second of the game for Sardis. The last Maryland score came at 53:05 when Nick Downing found classmate Dan Califf for the header in front of the net to make the score 4-0.

VIRGINIA

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland's 1-0 defeat of Virginia on Sept. 12 marked the Terps' first home win over the Cavaliers since 1977 when they captured a 4-2 victory. The win was also the first regular-season win against Virginia in the Cirovski era. The last 15 years, Maryland has opened its ACC schedule with Virginia, 1999 marked only the second win Maryland has captured in those 15 games.

Forward Scott Buete scored the only goal of the night at 49:38 to give Maryland its first ACC win of the season. The Terps' scoring sequence happened during the 49th minute, when Jason Cropley served the ball from the right side of the field to A.J. Herrera on the opposite sideline. Herrera then found Buete in front of the goal where he received the pass and booted it past Virginia goalkeeper Kyle Singer. Christian Lewis recorded his second shutout of the season.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Three Terrapins scored and four others added assists in No. 1 Maryland's 3-0 victory over Monmouth. The game was played despite steadily increasing rain from Hurricane Floyd, which made the playing surface exceptionally slick.

Jason Cropley struck first just 5:06 into the action off a Scott Buete assist. Over 26 minutes passed before the Terps' next score when A.J. Herrera found Nouf Tajini with a cross from the left side of the field. Tajini immediately centered the ball to Erik Dzimek who converted from seven yards out. The goal was Dzimek's first in his collegiate career, while Tajini's assist was his first collegiate point.

Christian Lewis recorded his third straight shutout. The Terrapins outshot the Hawks 31-7. Maryland's 31 shots tied the Ludwig Field record for shots in a game originally set on Oct. 20, 1996 against Robert Morris.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland, the top men's team according to Soccer America, recorded a 2-0 win over NC State, which was the Terrapins' fourth straight shutout, and increased Maryland's win streak to five games.

Taylor Twellman got things started 10 minutes into the game when Beckett Hollenbach found Nouf Tajini across the field on the left side. Tajini crossed to Twellman in front of the net, who beat NC State keeper Eric Handley with the header from five yards out.

It wasn't until 63:27 that the Terps scored again. Twellman sent the ball into the box from the right side to A.J. Herrera. Herrera then redirected the ball toward Siba Mohammed, who put it in for the score to make it 2-0.

In another exceptional outing for the Maryland defense, NC State managed only five shots on the day to Maryland's 23. Of those five, junior Terp keeper Christian Lewis came up with three saves while recording his fourth straight shutout.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland downed Lafayette 1-0, with senior forward Jason Cropley netting the game-winner at 23:37. The win is the Terps' sixth straight marking the longest win streak of head coach Sasho Cirovski's career at Maryland.

It was also the first time the Terps had strung five shutouts together since 1986 when Maryland held UMBC, Duke, Philadelphia Textile, Wake Forest and George Washington scoreless in consecutive games. Maryland record-holder Dom Macina (1985-88) was the goalkeeper for the Terps during that run. Goalkeeper Christian Lewis is manning the nets for the Terrapins this time around.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—The Maryland men's soccer team recorded its most commanding win this season when it powered past Howard 6-0 at Ludwig Field. Taylor Twellman scored the game-winner at 16:51 and added another goal and an assist in the second half to lead the Terrapins.

Scott Buete got things started when he found Twellman on a cross from the left side. Twellman then made the deposit into the lower left corner of the net past Howard goalie Nigel Burgess. The Terrapins' offense would remain dormant for the remainder of the half, before unleashing a five-goal assault during the second stanza.

A.J. Herrera kicked the scoring parade off at 54:29 off a forward pass from Siba Mohammed. Buete was also credited with an assist on the play after finding Siba Mohammed from the midfield to get things started. Jason Cropley stepped up next, netting his fourth goal of the year off assists from Twellman and fellow classmate Nick Downing at 60:29.

Maryland went scoreless for the next 20 minutes until at 80:54 when Twellman struck again for his second goal of the day. Cropley and Jason Sardis got credit for the assist.

Two more Terrapins would score before time expired, besting the team's previous season-high outing of five goals against Butler. Siba Mohammed made a picture-perfect cross from the right side of the box to a charging Reed Rickert who netted his second goal of the season. Defender Mike Shebuski was also credited with an assist on the play. Nick Purdom put an exclamation point on the Terp victory when he cleaned up the rebound off a Nouf Tajini shot and scored his first collegiate goal.

Christian Lewis manned the nets for the Terps most of the night, with Kevin Schmidt giving the two-year goalie relief with 17:39 remaining. Each had one save and gave up no goals.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—The No. 8 Maryland men's soccer team lost a 2-1 decision at home to No. 21 Virginia Commonwealth on an own goal for only its second loss of the season. Previously, the Terrapins had not lost a home game since Oct. 30, 1998, when Clemson beat the Terps 2-0.

The Terrapins struck first when senior Jason Cropley netted one just 2:16 into the contest off a Rob Birch assist. Virginia Commonwealth would waste no time, answering the Terp goal just over five minutes later. Ricardo Capilla scored that one for the Rams while Kevin Jeffrey got credited with the assist.

The game-winning goal would be an "own goal" when Maryland's Nick Downing got a head on a Jeffrey cross and deflected it into the net at the 10:06 mark. The goal would end the scoring for the night, and despite several good chances for the Terps to score, would also end Maryland's 10-game home win streak.

CHAPEL HILL, Md.—The Maryland men's soccer team earned the road win they were looking for when they downed North Carolina 1-0 at Fetzer Field before a crowd of 1,555.

Taylor Twellman scored the game winner in the 18th minute when he charged the goal, dribbling through traffic toward the right side of the net. The sophomore forward fired from seven yards out and found the back of the net on a high, straight shot past Carolina keeper Brad Thomas. Rob Birch and Scott Buete were both credited with assists on the play.

The Terrapins made one final attack before the half ended when Jason Sardis booted one just shy of the right side of the Tar Heels' goal with eight seconds remaining. The Heels escaped the scare, and Maryland went into halftime up 1-0.

In an impressive performance by Terrapin keeper Christian Lewis, the defense thwarted several Carolina attacks to solidify the win. Lewis ended the day with five saves, and allowed no goals.

Patriots 1

FAIRFAX, Va.- Taylor Twellman pitched in with a four-point effort to lift Maryland over George Mason 3-1 in Fairfax, Va., for win No. 10 of the season. Twellman had one goal and assisted on the other two for Maryland against the Patriots.

Twellman's goal opened the scoring and came just 7:19 into the first period. Senior Jason Cropley brought the ball down the right sideline and carefully calculated the cross to Twellman on the left side of the goal. Cropley finally fired, placing the ball in perfect position to give Twellman the header from six yards out. The Terrapins widened the margin when Twellman found Jason Sardis on a cross from the deep left side of the net. Sardis took the endline cross and made the deposit into the right side of the goal for what would eventually be the game-winner.

George Mason's Chris Villamil got one past starting goalkeeper Kevin Schmidt for the Patriots at 38:37 off a Laszlo Juhasz pass from the midfield. The goal was the Patriots' first goal in 445 minutes, breaking a streak of 21 straight unanswered goals.

When Schmidt drew the starting nod in place of a banged-up Christian Lewis, it broke a streak of 35-straight starts by Lewis in goal. Schmidt recorded two saves in 90 minutes of action to record his first collegiate win.

In another collegiate first, Nouf Tajini finished the scoring for the day with the first goal of his career. Previously, Tajini had been credited with three assists, but the goal was the first score of his Terrapin career. Twellman was given credit for the assist, marking his second of the game.

Neither team could find the net in the second half, leaving the final tally a 3-1 Maryland win.

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va.- Maryland forward Taylor Twellman headed the game-winner past William & Mary keeper Adin Brown just over six minutes into overtime to lift the Terps over the Tribe 1-0 at the Virginia Beach Sportsplex.

Both teams played to a scoreless tie in the first half, with Maryland having just two shots, both on goal. An intense second-half led to three cards, two for the Terps and one for the Tribe, but yielded no goals. Nick Downing had the Terps' best chance of the half when he sent a free kick sailing toward the upper left side of the net. Brown was there, however, to keep the Tribe in it with a spectacular diving save. When time expired, the Terps' headed into their first overtime contest of the season.

Jason Cropley

Less than two minutes into overtime Tribe forward Carlos Garcia fired a shot, which Schmidt blocked. John Feldmann drilled the rebound toward the net, but Schmidt was there again with the clutch save. The Terps would have the answer a little over a minute later when Scott Buete found Twellman for the dynamic header to win the game. Jason Cropley was also credited with an assist on the play.

WASHINGTON, D.C.— No. 7 Maryland was too much for American down the stretch as the Terps pulled off a 4-1 win in their final road contest of a three-week stretch of away games. Jason Sardis and A.J. Herrera each scored twice in the Terrapin win, with Sardis hitting on his only two shots of the game. Taylor Twellman and Nick Downing also accumulated three assists each on the day.

Maryland found the net with its first two shots of the day as Sardis started off the scoring with a hard shot from 20 yards out almost 14 minutes into the game. Twellman and Downing were credited with assists on the play.

Herrera hit one from point-blank range less than a minute and a half later to make the score a quick 2-0 lead for Maryland. Downing and Twellman paired up for the assist again on Maryland's second goal of the day. Herrera would score another just after the second half began when Twellman found him on a deep cross from the right side. Herrera made the deposit across the goal in the upper right hand corner of the net. Rob Birch was also credited with an assist.

American scored its only goal of the day when Nino Marcantonio netted a high goal over Terp goalie Kevin Schmidt off a Larry McDonald pass. Schmidt had five saves on the day and gave another solid effort in just his third career start in place of an injured Christian Lewis.

Sardis finished what he started when found the net for the second time of the afternoon when Downing set up a Jason Cropley breakaway. Cropley crossed it to Sardis on the left side, who fit the ball past American keeper Michael Gorsenger on a high shot to the left corner to finish the scoring for both teams.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—The No. 6 Wake Forest Demon Deacons defeated the No. 7 Maryland Terrapins by a 2-1 margin on a Jamal Seale goal at the 99:45 mark.

In an eagerly anticipated matchup of the top-ranked teams, both went scoreless through the first 75 minutes before Boddy Gehring found the net for Wake Forest on a pass from Matt Thompson. The Terrapins took it up a notch to combat the deficit and equalized the goal-count at 84:27 when Sida Mohammed crossed it from the right side past Wake Forest keeper Sean Conner. Rod Birch and Jason Sardis were both credited with assists. Siba Mohammed's goal would de what sent the Terps into overtime for just the second time this season, it was the fifth overtime game for the Demon Deacons.

The overtime period was intensely competitive, but it was Wake Forest that found the goal first when Seale came out on top of a one-on-one and deposited the golden goal at 99:45.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -Taylor Twellman scored two goals in less than two minutes to lead the No. 9 Maryland Terrapins past the Loyola Greyhounds at Ludwig Field. Freshman Sida Mohammed scored the game-winner for the Terps at 55:44.

Both teams played a scoreless first half with Maryland holding a small 6-2 shot advantage on the Greyhounds. The Terrapins came out on fire in the second half, however, outshooting Loyola 17-1 in the second period and netting four goals. Sida Mohammed started the goal parade just over 10 minutes in to the second half. Maryland had already created several excellent scoring chances for the offense after halftime, but it was Siba Mohammed who would net the game-winner off the rebound of a Jason Cropley shot. The goal was Siba Mohammed's fourth of the year.

After the first goal, the floodgates opened and the Greyhounds just couldn't contain the attacking Terrapins. Twellman found the goal from the left side off a Sida Mohammed breakaway pass at 67:50. Less than 10 minutes later he scored again from the same spot, this time off assists from Sumed Idrahim and Cropley.

Maryland would find the goal one more time before time expired when reserve forward Nick Purdom found Sumed Idrahim in the center of the field. Sumed Idrahim then made the deposit from 10 yards out for his first career goal

Clemson 1

CLEMSON, S.C.— Jason Cropley scored for the ninth-ranked Maryland men's soccer team at 81:14 to lift the Terps 2-1 over Clemson for the first time in two years.

Clemson started off the scoring at 17:30 when Mike Potempa fired a shot that rebounded off the crossbar. Bob Cavanagh settled the ball and found Ian Fuller in front of the goal, who slipped one past Terrapin keeper Christian Lewis for the goal. The game was Lewis' first in over two weeks since he was sidelined by a bulging disc in his back. The goal was the only he would concede all day. He ended the game with one save.

Maryland brought the score even before halftime when Cropley found the net off a shot from dead center, 15 yards out. Taylor Twellman served the ball to Cropley, while Mike Shebuski generated the start of the play.

Both teams contested the last 50 minutes of the game very intensely, resulting in six cards (two for the Maryland and four for Clemson) before time expired. The game went scoreless until Cropley hit again on a play that started with Siba Mohammed. Siba Mohammed managed the pass to Cropley while falling to the ground. Cropley then hit the net from 15 yards out past Tiger goalkeeper Marc Paisant. With Cropley's second goal of the night, the score became 2-1 and brought the Terps their first victory at Riggs Field since 1988.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The No. 7 Maryland men's soccer team downed the Wisconsin Badgers by a score of 3-1 at Ludwig Field in the Terps' final regular season game. Sophomore Taylor Twellman scored two goals, including the game-winner for the Maryland.

Maryland came out flat the first 20 minutes and gave up a goal at 23:36 to Wisconsin's Salil Kenkre. The Badger goal snapped the Terps' out of their lull and Maryland answered less than one minute later. At 24:17, Maryland's Jason Sardis lined up for the corner and booted one to 6-2 sophomore Dan Califf, who used his height advantage to head it into the goal for his second score of the year.

Scoring was idle through the half until the 67th minute when Sumed Ibrahim wove his way through the midfield and found Scott Buete on the left sideline. Buete served a high cross to the left side of the goal where Twellman elevated above two Wisconsin defenders and Badger goalie Moriba Atiba Baker to head the ball into the goal for his 11th goal of the season. The goal, at 66:09, would be the game-winner for the Terps, but Twellman's scoring for the afternoon was not done yet.

At 87:30, Twellman scored on a penalty kick after Wisconsin was called for a takedown in the box. The penalty kick was the first for Maryland this year, and sent Wisconsin back to Madison with a 3-1 loss in their first-ever trip to Ludwig Field.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.— The No. 2 seed Maryland Terrapins were upset by the No. 7 seed Virginia Cavaliers 2-0 in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. The loss was the Terrapins' first in the quarterfinals since their 4-3 1995 loss to North Carolina.

Despite being injury-free for the first time in over a month, Maryland came out to a lackluster start, which Virginia used to build a 2-0 advantage on the higher-seeded Terrapins. Virginia struck first at 4:11 when Sheldon Barnes beat a Maryland defender and found Ryan Trout on the right side of the goal past a drawn-out Christian Lewis for the goal.

The Terrapins continued their uninspired play and gave up a second goal at 18:49. It was Barnes who struck again with the header from 20 yards out. The assists were credited to Drew O'Donnell and Steve Totten. The second goal was all the Cavaliers would need.

Virginia came at the Terrapins the entire 90 minutes, knowing a win could solidify an NCAA bid for the 11-7-1 Cavaliers. Maryland was out-fouled 34-9, with shots almost even at 7-6, with the Terps holding the slight advantage.

Red Storm 1
Maryland 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Carlo Acquista of St. John's scored at 88:23 on a breakaway goal to upset No. 7-seed Maryland in the first round of the NCAA men's soccer tournament at Ludwig Field. Maryland finishes its season at 14-6, compiling the most regular-season wins in program history.

St. John's packed the box most of the afternoon, playing a very defensive style of soccer. Maryland still managed several good chances during the second half with its best opportunity coming at 82:42 off a Nick Downing corner kick. Downing sent a rocket to sophomore forward Taylor Twellman who attempted a bicycle-kick shot from close range. St. John's goalie Dan Popik was there to save the shot for the Red Storm, however. The save was one of four for Popik on the day.

The Red Storm caught Maryland aggressively attacking the net, and midfielder Patrick Lonergan capitalized on a through-pass that led to the Acquista breakaway. Acquista came charging from just over the midfield line at Terp goalie Christian Lewis with Maryland defenders to his left and hot on his heels. In the end, he was able to fire the shot from 10 yards out past a diving Lewis for the goal.

Ludwig Field

Because of the expanding horizon of Terrapin soccer and the growing interest in its achievement on the field, the most extensive facility enhancement in Maryland soccer history was undertaken in 1995. The result: the state-of-the-art Ludwig Soccer Field.

Built at a cost of $2.5 million, the facility's quality now matches the soccer program. Ludwig Field, officially dedicated on September 16, 1995, is surely a cornerstone of college soccer throughout the nation.

The 4,000-seat facility is an integral part of the more than $40 million of new construction for Maryland athletics. The complex is fully lighted with an all-weather track and a sodded Bermuda grass playing field.

The permanent lights allow for commonly scheduled night games. The lights also allow Maryland the ability to host NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference tournaments, high-caliber in-season tournaments and nationally televised games.

The complex was also constructed with the local soccer fan very much in mind. The field is located directly adjacent to Parking Lot 1 and close to the University Boulevard entrance.

The facility is named after lifetime Terrapin friends Bob and Louise Ludwig.

Ludwig Field was packed for the Terps' NCAA quarterfinal game against Creighton two years ago when 3,123 came out to cheer the Terps.

Leading the Way into the 21st Century

- A Carnegie Research-I University
- Member, Assoc. of American Universities (AAU)
- Flagship of the University System of Maryland
- Division I NCAA Athletics

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Ten years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

University of Maryland

The Campus

The University of Maryland, College Park, is the most comprehensive institution of higher education, research and service in the state. The university offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 master's programs and 69 doctoral programs in 13 colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public research universities that are members of the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities. It is classified as a Research-I university by the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the range of its baccalaureate programs, the amount of federal support received and the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that honor with the top research universities in the country.

Among the public universities in the Association of American Universities, Maryland ranks among the top in percentage of African-American undergraduate students. In addition, the university has the largest number of African-Americans and other minority members among its peers.

Flagship Status

In 1988, the University of Maryland, College Park, was designated as the flagship institution for the University System of Maryland. As well as pursuing a serious research mission and continuing its high level of service to the state, the university rededicated itself to providing the highest quality graduate and undergraduate education. Increased undergraduate opportunities for research and individual study; the development of the College Park Scholars Program and the expansion of the University Honors Program; the genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; the creation of CORE, the general education program; and the establishment of the Center for Teaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's designation of flagship.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

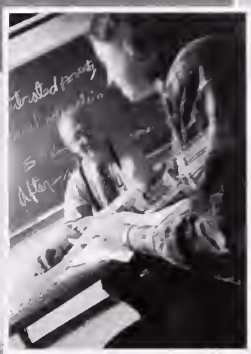
With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The University of Maryland features a diversity of cultural and recreational activities. Four art galleries, more than 200 annual musical performances and countless dance and theater productions, expose audiences to the broadest range of programs in the arts. And intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

A Wired World

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.



President C.D. Mote, Jr.

C.D. (Dan) Mote Jr. took office as president in September 1998 with a clear vision for taking the University of Maryland down the home stretch to its destiny as one of America's great research universities.

Mote came to Maryland from the University of California at Berkeley, where he had earned all of his degrees, and where he had served in faculty and administration more than 30 years. He had most recently been vice chancellor for university relations.

In Maryland, he found a university already well on its way to achieving the greatness envisioned when the General Assembly declared it the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland. Mote immediately took a leadership role on the Governor's Task Force on Governance, Coordination and Funding of the University System of Maryland to gain greater autonomy and flexibility for the university to pursue its goals. He followed that by working closely with state leaders to boost university funding for new programs, scholarships and faculty, gaining 10 percent appropriations increases in each of his first two years.

Mote spelled out in his inauguration address his vision of Maryland as a great research university, where teaching and research are "inseparable." In this plan, the faculty creates a culture of excellence that permeates the university, student success is the center of all activity, and the extended Maryland family of alumni and friends grows rich in pride and tradition.

High achievement has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley.

By the end of Mote's second year at Maryland, the university's ongoing capital campaign, Bold Vision • Bright Future, had raised nearly $300 million of a $350 million goal. Including such landmark donations as Clarice Smith's $15 million for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and Comcast Corporation's $25 million for the Comcast Center. But Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not principally about raising money.

"They are about the university building relationships, with its alumni and friends of the university through the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as easily as the women's lacrosse team scores a goal."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children and four grandchildren.

MARYLAND TERRAPINS

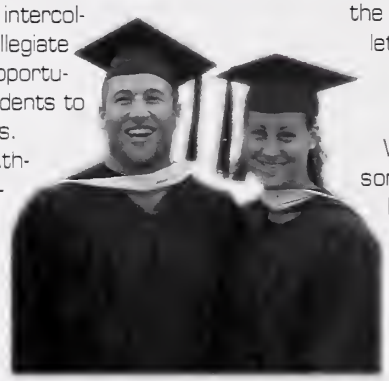
AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

THIS IS MARYLAND ATHLETICS

At the University of Maryland, winning is not taken lightly. Like the rich history of all its sports programs, championships are a tradition.

Since the 1950s, Maryland has established itself as one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation. This type of success is no accident; it has been built year-by-year on the achievements of outstanding young men and women who were given the opportunity to excel both on and off the field of play. The victories, the championships and the national acclaim are all ingredients of the Maryland athletic program. Student-athletes who attend Maryland are part of a program and a university which thrives on tradition and excellence.

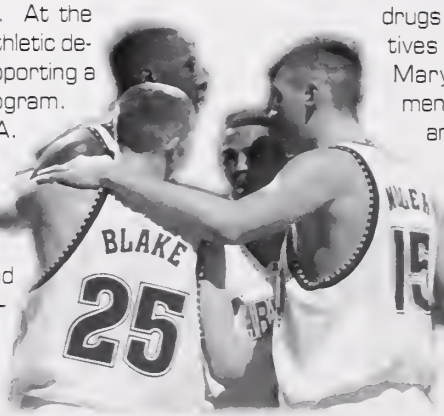
ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE



The University of Maryland considers intercollegiate athletics an integral part of the collegiate experience. Its existence provides an opportunity for students, faculty, alumni and students to share in the life of intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to achieve the same standards of excellence in its athletic program as exist within the university's teaching, research and public service programs. The department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student, possessing academic abilities, personal interests and ambitions comparable to those of the other members of the student body. Since 1983, 88 percent of freshmen scholarship athletes who completed their eligibility at the University of Maryland earned their degrees.

GOALS



The great thing about being a Terrapin is the commitment to hard work and dedication. At the University of Maryland, the athletic department is dedicated to supporting a well-balanced Division I program. Athletic director Deborah A. Yow and her dedicated coaches, administrators and staff have re-engineered the department into a responsive and financially sound model — with a clear vision and a determined drive toward national prominence.

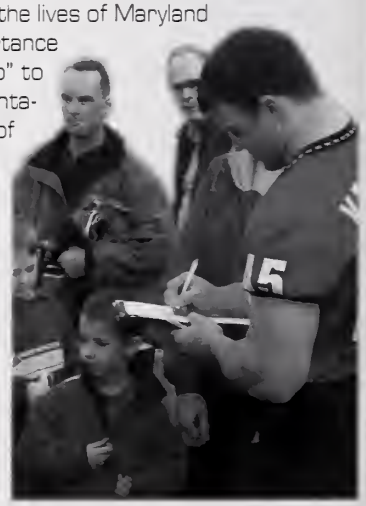
ATHLETIC SUCCESS

National championships, conference championships, national rankings and postseason play are all a part of the University of Maryland experience. The University of Maryland has established itself as one of the nation's elite athletic programs. The Terrapins have won 15 national championships, including a record six consecutive by the women's lacrosse team. The Terrapins had plenty of reason to celebrate when it came to intercollegiate athletics in 1999-2000, another finish among the top 15 percent of all schools in the Sears Directors' Cup, which measures the overall athletic achievement in men's and women's sports.

COMPETITION

Wearing the Maryland uniform means playing in front of some of the loudest and most supportive fans in the nation. It means playing against the best teams in the country, in the most prestigious conference in the country, the ACC. It means wearing the school colors with pride. It means doing your best in athletics and academics. It is a unique and special feeling being a Terrapin.

ATHLETES IN THE COMMUNITY



From the media spotlight to the community spotlight, Terrapin student-athletes strengthen the ties of the local community by serving as role models. Community service is a key part of the Terrapins' agenda. Student-athletes support many community programs which help to enrich the lives of Maryland youth while teaching the importance of studying hard and saying "no" to drugs and alcohol. Representatives from the University of Maryland athletic department speak to participants and use their image and the appeal of sports to encourage Maryland children to stay in school, improve their reading and writing skills, and to receive their high school diplomas.

Athletic Director Deborah A. Yow

7th season at Maryland • President of NACDA

Dr. Deborah A. Yow is in the seventh year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland ... a year in which she also has assumed the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, an organization with a membership of more than 6,100 athletic administrators representing 1,600 colleges and universities in North America and Mexico.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony to her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability. Likewise, her election to the presidency of NACDA is an indication of the respect with which Dr. Yow is regarded in intercollegiate athletics and education in the U.S. and Canada.

Also as a member of the NCAA Management Council and NCAA Division I Budget Committee, Yow presents a strong voice for excellence and integrity at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. In these national roles she has represented the University of Maryland and the Atlantic Coast Conference with a balanced and proactive voice.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

• Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.

• Balanced all six of the nearly $30 million annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years prior to her arrival).

• Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided to student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of nearly 90 percent during her tenure.

• Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.

• Reorganized and upgraded marketing and fundraising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 135% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 270% during her tenure at Maryland.

• Implemented a strategic management model.

• Paid off approximately $7 million in operating debt accrued before her arrival in 1994.

• Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fundraising applications.

• Significantly improved customer care in every area.

Maryland athletic director Deborah A. Yow took over as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in July.

The Maryland Department of Athletics has made remarkable progress under Yow's leadership. Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past six years, Dr. Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves." As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles. She was recently singled out by Street & Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S.

A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future."

National Successes

The Terps enjoyed across-the-board success in 1999-2000, with the following varsity programs earning Top 30 rankings at one time or another during their respective seasons of competition, and two teams capturing national championships (field hockey, women's lacrosse).

Basketball (Men's)	Gymnastics
Football	Indoor Track (Women's)
Lacrosse (Men's)	Outdoor Track (Women's)
Lacrosse (Women's)	Soccer (Men's)
Field Hockey	Soccer (Women's)
Golf

The 1999 field hockey championship team.

Rob Mullens

Sr. Assoc. A.D./Internal Operations

Rob Mullens, who joined the Terps' staff as assistant athletic director for business in the summer of 1996, was elevated to associate athletic director for administration in January 1999 and to senior associate athletic director for internal operations in February.

Mullens assists the athletic director with the overall administration of the athletic department's internal operations in addition to assisting with the operation of football and men's basketball. He also oversees the supervision of 15 sports and is responsible for overseeing the business office, ticket office, facilities and operations, and the computer systems analyst.

As the chief financial officer, Mullens is directly responsible for the department's $25 million annual budget.

Mullens graduated cum laude in 1991 from West Virginia with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in sport management at West Virginia in 1993. Prior to his appointment at Maryland, he was senior business manager and the chief budget officer for the University of Miami (Fla.) athletic department (1994-96).

His background in athletics includes serving as an intern for the senior associate director of athletics at Kentucky (1993) and as a graduate assistant to the assistant athletic director for business at West Virginia (1992-93). Prior to pursuing a career in athletics, Mullens worked for the accounting firm Ernst and Young.

He is married to the former Jane Pearson, who is the Terrapins' assistant athletic director for compliance.

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Anton Goff, Academic Counselor Men's Soccer

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletic director Demetrius Marlowe, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in Cole Field House. It features a study center that includes 24 desktop computers, private study cubicles, a tutoring center, classrooms, and individual offices for four professional academic counselors, a learning specialist, an assistant program coordinator, and two graduate assistants. In addition, the center's extended site is located in the Gossett Football Team House, and includes office space for three professional counselors and a 16-station desktop computer center.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Mentor program
- EDCP 108-J (Career decision making and planning)
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-O (First-year transitions to the university)

EXCEL Mentors

Mentoring is a craft that is embodied in a person serving as counselor or teacher who provides advice and guidance to a novice learner. Educating by Creating Environments for Learning (ExCEL) is a mentoring program that establishes such a relationship. ASCDU hires and trains individuals who serve as mentors to student-athletes who have been identified as needing individual attention for learning strategies support.

M.A.P.S. Directory

The Maryland Athletes Placement Source is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 1,000 corporations and businesses across the country. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The MAPS directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Internship Fair

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search, and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Student-Athlete Career Internship Fair, in which student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest.

Summer Job & Internship Program

Due to the time demands of athletic practice and competition, most student-athletes do not have the chance to work or complete an internship experience. Employers desire to see work experience related to academic coursework on a resume. The Summer Job and Internship Program is one of the emerging services offered to student-athletes to meet this need. Student-athletes seeking employment opportunities and/or experience in their fields of study are assisted with locating prospects and submitting the necessary documentation to secure summer jobs and/or internships.

Terp Choices

Personal growth is fundamental to all ASCDU programs and services. Terp Choices is a program that provides student-athletes the opportunity to identify their fundamental values, develop communication skills, and enhance decision making skills that will enable them to manage their personal health and well-being. Interactive presentations are given by trained student-educators who intend to illustrate to athletic team participants that an individual's choice may affect an entire team. This campus-wide program is partially funded by grants from the NCAA and ACC.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of a representative from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The main purpose of the council is to provide student-athletes with leadership experience and a forum for dialogue with members of the administration about their roles, responsibilities and needs as student-athletes at the University of Maryland.

Strength & Conditioning

In the highly competitive collegiate soccer world of the '90s, the off-field preparation of the student-athlete is a critical component to the on-field success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt, Maryland's director of strength and conditioning, believes strongly that a solid off-field training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development.

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terps are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the nation. Conveniently located in the Gossett Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Media Guidelines

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Ludwig Field may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Stephanie Mociun in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 1112 Cole Field House, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7063. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.
